

World Food Programme VNR

More help needed after Sudan floods.

KASSALA, SUDAN

AUGUST 27, 2007

NATURAL WITH ENGLISH SPEECH AND ARABIC WITH ENGLISH TRANSLATION

DURATION:01:53

Flood victims continue to suffer in Sudan and there's more misery forecast.

SHOWS:

KASSALA, SUDAN (AUGUST 27, 2007

1. VARIOUS AERIALS OF FLOODED LAND IN KASSALA, EAST SUDAN
2. PEOPLE AT FOOD DISTRIBUTION CENTRE
3. MAN RECEIVING FOOD RATIONS
4. CLOSE UP MAN'S FACE
5. MORE OF FOOD DISTRIBUTION
6. MAN WALKING AWAY WITH FOOD RATIONS
7. (SOUNDBITE) (Arabic with English Translation) FLOOD VICTIM, HASSAN

MOHAMED MAHMOUD SAYING:

"The food is not enough, the food can not last for more than ten days."

8. MORE OF FLOOD VICTIMS GETTING FOOD RATIONS
9. CHILDREN SITTING ON TOP OF BAGS OF FOOD

10. (SOUNDBITE)(English) WFP OFFICER IN CHARGE OF KASSALA, AHMED MOHAMMED

ABDALLAH SAYING:

"Looking at the number of people who are coming here, or the people who are affected, we planned immediately for 20,000 individuals and then later on we were able to respond to about 18,555 persons and we provided them with cereals which is sorghum and we provided them with sugar which is preferred by them and we provided them with pulses, oil and iodized salt."

11. TEMPORARY SHELTERS FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

12. WOMAN AND CHILD UNDER TEMPORARY SHELTER

13. MORE OF FAMILY UNDER TEMPORARY SHELTER

14. FARMER SHOWING THE RIVER GASH THAT BURST ITS BANKS

15. MORE OF RIVER GASH