

3) Emergency food aid in Sumba 03/11/05

lang: Eng/Urdu/nat sound

length: 00:03:08

PAL

Story Line

The village of Sumba in the mountains above Muzaffarabad lies in ruins and the road leading to it is still blocked by huge landslides

Saeed a 15 years old young man struggles to support his family as winter approaches. He lost his elder sister when the village school collapsed and their house has been destroyed.

Shot List:

05:09/05:18 Pan left from destroyed mosque to house ruins

05:18/06:18 Various of homeless families

06:18/06:24 Government school collapsed

06:24/06:40

SOT Saeed Urdu: This is my sister's grave, she died in the school the 8th of October. We found her dead body on the 9th and then buried her.

In that school 40/45 kids died.

06:41/06:59 Saeed family drinking tea at dusk

07:00/07:05 Village of Sumba

07:05/07:24

SOT David Orr English: we arrived in the village of Sumba yesterday and there we met Saeed, whose sister was one of dozens of children who died when the government school collapsed. His house was also destroyed and now he's living with his mother and younger mother and sister in a hut made from bits and pieces.

07:24/07:37 Saeed's mother crying for the lost daughter

07:37/07:55

SOT Saeed Urdu: This was my house, it had 4 rooms, it fell down because of the earthquake.

All our goods are down there in the house and now we live in a tent.

07:55/08:07 Various of Saeed house

08:08/end Saeed leaving the house