

KENYA / WFP

23/11/06

- Huts in water (Bura division)
- Bura bridge on tana river

22/11/06

- Flooded trucks (road from Modogashe to Garissa)

23/11/06

- People rescued being dropped by police helicopters in Jambelle from nearby flooded village,
- Views of tana rivers around Garissa town

23/11/06

Jambelle

- soundbite : Asanta Ali, said three of her daughters, aged 15, 13 and 10 were missing. Wading through water up to her chest, carrying a one-year-old and a three-year-old, she said she lost sight of the three elder girls in the water.

22/11/06

- aerial views along Tana river (coming from North)
- Garissa town, agriculture offices where people have temporarily re-settled after their village (Ziwani) was flooded
- Outskirts of Garissa / huts flooded/ church flooded

DADAAB

21/11/06

- WFP High Energy biscuits being distributed to Dadaab refugees after their camp was flooded
- Refugees waiting for High Energy Biscuits

-soundbite Rene McGuffin, head of refugees programme (WFP) :

"We have to plan for the worst people have lost everything...so people are getting the food that they need"

-Flooded alleyways in Ifo Camp

- Destroyed hut and house in Ifo refugee camp (Dadaab, Kenya)
- Donkey carts carrying food aid through Ifo camp flooded alleyways

-Soundbite James Beida, resettled from Ifo camp to higher ground nearby:

"First few days we've been receiving some biscuits...we find it very helpful"

- general view of camp resettled outside Ifo by refugees whose houses have been flooded
- Refugees crossing water outside WFP/Care distribution centre in Dadaab
- Refugees carrying bags of food
- Car going through water on main road linking Dadaab to Ifo camp

24/11/06

- Arrival of WFP chartered jumbo cargo plane (Antonov 124) with four MI-8 helicopters two will be used in Kenya, two in Somalia, as part of the WFP regional air operation, to airlift food to flood victims, but also to carry non-food items, humanitarian workers and to preposition staff for airdrops two air bases are being set up in Garissa and Mombasa, for Kenya and Somalia operations